

THE ALASKA DAILY EMPIRE

"ALL THE NEWS ALL THE TIME"

VOL. XII, NO. 1253.

JUNEAU, ALASKA, MONDAY, JULY 1, 1918.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

PRICE TEN CENTS

ALASKA MINERS ALMOST STARVE TO DEATH ITALIANS TAKING MORE PRISONERS

VAL BELLA IS CAPTURED BY THE ITALIANS

They Secure Strong Positions on Mountain Front and Break Up Austrian Offensive.

FRENCH TAKE PLACES

French Forces Capture Ridge and 265 Prisoners in West; Son of Czar Reported Alive.

An Associated Press Summary says the Italians captured Monte di Val Bella and gained strong positions at vital points. They also broke up preparations made for another enemy offensive.

The Vienna war office advises claim a repulse of the Italians.

The French continue nibbling at the Germans on the Western front. North of the Marne Saturday they attacked north of Clignan river, occupying a long ridge between the villages of Monsely and Passy.

In Callois the French took 305 prisoners.

The British repulsed an enemy attack near Merris.

The Allies are subjected to a heavy enemy artillery fire before Amiens, near of Scarpe, near Arras and north-west of Lens.

TAKE MANY PRISONERS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A Rome dispatch says the Italians and French forces on Asiago Plateau in capturing Monte di Val Bella took 1,500 Austrian prisoners.

ENEMY IS REPULSED

ROME, July 1.—The Italian forces supported by the Allied troops, attacked the Austro-Hungarian positions on the Italian mountain front Saturday, capturing Monte di Val Bella, after a bitter struggle.

The War Office announces that more than 800 prisoners were taken. Strong counter attacks from the enemy followed, which were repulsed by the Italian infantry and artillery.

HOSPITAL SHIP IS VICTIM OF A SUBMARINE

Only One Boat of 24 Person from 258 Aboard Has Reached a Port.

LONDON, July 1.—A German submarine sank the British hospital ship Landevy Castle 116 miles south of Fastnet. She was homeward bound from Canada and carried 258 persons. A boat containing 24 survivors has reached port.

Schooner Wrecked
SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—The schooner Annie Larsen, believed to have been a former gun runner for German raiders, has been wrecked on Malden Island in the South Pacific.

Isaacs Is Safe
PORTSMOUTH, July 1.—A telegram from Lieut. Edouard Isaacs announces his safety. It was reported that the German submarine which sank the American transport Lincoln had captured the Lieutenant. He telegraphed that he is safe in England.

MANY HOUSES ARE DESTROYED BY FIRE

AMSTERDAM, July 1.—In a fire at Kartel on the Sea of Marmara near Constantinople Friday last 300 houses and 35 shops were destroyed, according to Berlin reports.

INVASION OF RUSSIA FROM THE TEUTONS

According to Moscow Dispatch Huns Have Occupied the Capital of the Caucasus.

WAR IS PROCLAIMED

The Province of Archangle Claims That a State of War Exists for That District.

LONDON, July 1.—The Germans have occupied Tiflis, the capital and largest city of the Caucasus region, according to a Moscow dispatch, which adds that the Germans are organizing Teuton war prisoners for their invasion in Caucasus.

STATE OF WAR EXISTS
MOSCOW, July 1.—A state of war has been proclaimed in the Province of Archangel in Northern Russia.

COUNCIL DISSOLVED
LONDON, July 1.—A Shanghai dispatch says the Czech-Slovaks have dissolved the Bolshevik Council of Workmen and Soldiers' Delegates at Vladivostok.

SURRENDERS FLEET

LONDON, July 1.—The Bolsheviks has surrendered to Germany a portion of the Russian Black Sea fleet, which fled to Novo Rossysk when the Germans captured Sebastopol. Other ships of the fleet were blown up by the crews. Germany promised not to use the war ships and to return them to Russia at the end of the war.

TILLMAN IS NOT EXPECTED TO RECOVER

Well Known Senator from South Carolina Seriously Ill at his Washington Home.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Benjamin R. Tillman, Democratic Senator from South Carolina, is seriously ill at his home here. His recovery is regarded as doubtful. His left side is completely paralyzed. He is suffering from cerebral hemorrhage.

TOTAL FUNDS FOR DRIVE IS STILL PILING UP SOME

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The Red Cross subscriptions for the Second War Fund drive now total $179,928,394. It is announced that funds are still coming into the National Headquarters.

CREW IS LANDED

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The crew of the steamer California, which was mined and sunk off the coast of France, have been landed at a French port, according to advices received here.

DESTROYERS TO BE LAUNCHED ON JULY FOURTH

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Fourteen destroyers will be launched in the American shipyards July 4th. These, with several Eagle boats will make up the Navy's share of tonnage to be launched from all shipyards in honor of the celebration of Independence Day.

500 GIRLS SHOW THEIR PROFICIENCY IN MILITARY DRILL

WOMEN WORKERS AT DRILL IN CENTRAL PARK.

Five hundred girls and women marched and counter marched in the South Meadow, Central Park, New York city. They are members of the National League of Women Workers. It was the first drill of the New York State branch of that organization. The women have been receiving military instruction throughout the winter and spring in the drill halls of the Ethical Culture Society and the Manhattan trades and Brooklyn high schools. A red, white and blue sash was worn by each woman.

MISS ELIZABETH GAY WITH FU QUANG (The Mascot) AND MISS MARY BERNAY THE YOUNGEST MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION

BRITISH NAVY TURNED OVER TO GERMANY

Count Roon Says the Suez Canal and Egypt Must Also Be Given to Turkey.

GIBRALTAR TO SPAIN

Declares that France and America Must pay Big Indemnity for Northern France.

PARIS, July 1.—A Basil dispatch says Count Roon, a member of the Prussian House of Lords, published a German peace program in the Goerlitz Nachrichten in which he stipulated that Great Britain must turn her war fleet over to Germany and return Gibraltar to Spain; give Egypt and the Suez Canal to Turkey.

His terms provided also that France and America must pay Germany $45,000,000,000 indemnity. Northern France and Belgium must be surrendered to Germany.

He said there would be no cessation of submarine warfare and no armistice until the terms outlined were complied with.

HUNGARIAN ADMITS THAT MANY KILLED

Claims That Most of Casualties of Austrians Were Due to Sickness.

BASIL, Switzerland, July 1.—Dr. Alexander Woklerle, Hungarian Premier, admits that the Austrians lost 12,000 prisoners in their recent retreat from Piave river. He says he would not attempt to disguise the fact that the casualties were hundreds of thousands, but declares a large percentage of these were due to sickness.

ZURICH, July 1.—Horses for slaughter were sold in the Vienna market this week at the unprecedented price of from $375 to $500 each.

LABOR MUST NOT SUFFER SAYS WILSON

Vetoes a Bill Which Would Lengthen Hours of Labor for Government Clerks.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Wilson today vetoed the legislative judicial appropriation bill on account of a provision increasing the hours of work for Government clerks from seven to eight hours a day. He declared that as he recently had asked employers to see that there were no changes in conditions unfavorable to labor, he did not feel justified in assenting to a measure in which the United States would be the first to make such a change.

DEBS ARRESTED BY MARSHAL FOR SPEECH MADE

Is Alleged That in Addressing Socialist State Convention He Praised the I. W. W.

CLEVELAND, July 1.—Eugene V. Debs, several times candidate for President of the United States on the Socialist ticket, was arrested here by United States Marshal Charles W. Lapp, when about to deliver a speech. The warrant for arrest was issued as the result of his speech at the Socialist State Convention at Canton, Ohio, June 15th, when he is said to have praised the I. W. W. order and to have made seditious utterances.

STOCK QUOTATIONS

Today's Quotations
NEW YORK, July 1.—Alaska Gold closed at 2 1/2.
American Zinc at 19 1/2.
Butte & Superior at 28 1/2.
China at 39 1/2.
Ray at 24.
Utah Copper at 8 1/2.

HUN PRODDING IS WAR SPORT OF THE ALLIES

Are Harassing the Enemy While the Latter Is Preparing for Next Offensive

TAKE MANY PLACES

Pronounced Gains Made by French Where British Lines Join the Americans.

AFTERNOON SUMMARY (To the Associated Press)—Both the British and the French yesterday continued their recently adopted program for prodding the Germans at various points along the Franco-Belgium line.

They captured a vantage point here and there and harassed the enemy, while the latter is making preparations for getting an offensive under way.

The French hit the German lines in two local attacks yesterday. The most pronounced gains were effected by the French just above a point where the British lines join that of the Americans in the sector north-west of Belleau Wood.

PARIS, July 1.—Aviators bombed Mannheim, Germany, killing five and injuring 14.

CONFERENCE OF LABOR FOR MANY NATIONS

Is Purported to Have Common Federation of All the Pan-American Countries.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—At a conference of the American Federation of Labor and the Mexican Federation of Labor officials planned an international labor conference in Mexico City within three months. Representatives of labor organizations in all Pan-American countries will be invited to attend.

SAYS YANKEES MUCH FEARED BY GERMANS

Prisoners Declare Germans High in Command Recognizes Danger from America.

SUNDAY'S WAR NEWS

Little Fighting Outside of Artillery Duels on the West and Italian Fronts.

PARIS, July 1.—The Havas News Agency asserts that German prisoners declare a German high in command fears the Americans, and that this is the reason why Germany seeks at all cost to impose peace on the Allies before next winter. Prisoners have shown astonishment at the spirited manner and versatility of the Americans.

Sunday Summary

SUNDAY SUMMARY (To the Associated Press)—Another week has passed without the Germans resuming the offensive. The Allies have shown great activity and in carrying the fight to the enemy several important points were taken. The actions were fought for important immediate objectives which strengthened the Allied lines where they needed bolstering. These now place in jeopardy the enemy's lines and they extend the control of the Allies over wide sectors.

Vienna Advice

VIENNA, July 1.—An official bulletin says near Zenzon Novente Diplava Italian reconnoitering detachments attempted to cross the river. On the remainder of the front there are artillery duels.

Is Little Doing

LONDON, July 1.—Gen. Haig reports that beyond the usual artillery there is nothing to report.

Huns Admit News

BERLIN, July 1.—An official Sunday bulletin says the Germans admit the advance of the British into Vieux Bernaun, but assert that counter attacks drove the British beyond the borders of the village again.

Guns Are Lively

ROME, July 1.—An official Sunday bulletin says artillery is lively on the Asiago Plateau. The Italian patrols have been harassing the Austrians. Allied airmen bombed the railway centers and enemy troop movements. Three enemy aeroplanes were downed.

Official Bulletin

PARIS, July 1.—An official bulletin says there is nothing to report except artillery between the Ourcq and the Marne and the region west of Rheims.

Active Patrol Work

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The sectors held by the Americans were marked Saturday by active raiding of patrols. It was reported by Gen. Pershing that a small detachment on the Picardy front captured 36 prisoners and inflicted severe losses on a German raiding party, which was repulsed.

There was increased activity of the enemy artillery on the Vosges front. Artillery action on June 26 and 27 was also active on the American marine positions near Chateau Thierry.

GREAT BRITAIN EXPLAINS ACTION TO PERU NATION

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Great Britain explained to Peru in a statement issued by the British minister at Lima that the recent delivery to Chile of several aeroplanes was in accord with the American principles proclaimed by President Wilson. The minister said it was believed that the act of the British Government would not be misinterpreted.

TWELVE MINERS ARE RESCUED JUST IN TIME

Lived on Moss Several Weeks and Were Saved from Starvation by Arrival Schooner.

MANY NATIVES DIED

Is Claimed That 100 Natives Died of Starvation in Kuskokwim Valley This Winter.

SEATTLE, July 1.—Twelve miners in the Good News Bay district were rescued from starvation by the delayed arrival of the schooner Bender Brothers, according to the report given out by the ship's officers.

The Alaskans claimed the winter was so severe that they were unable to hunt or fish and were forced to eat moss several weeks.

Ice delayed the arrival of the steamer with supplies.

Officers say 100 natives in the Kuskokwim Valley starved to death.

Good News Bay is on the coast of the Aleutian Peninsula and is where a rich strike was reported last summer, which caused much excitement in Seward, Seldovia, Anchorage and Cook Inlet communities.

STRIKES ARE IN PROGRESS IN THE EAST

Street Car Men in Columbus Go Out and Strike of Western Union Men Been Called.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—The street car service here is at a standstill, due to a strike of union carmen over the refusal of the company to re-instate a man discharged Friday last.

Western Union Also

CHICAGO, July 1.—S. J. Konenkamp, in the interests of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, announced Sunday that he would call a strike of the union men employed by the Western Union, effective this morning.

Nation May Intervene

WASHINGTON, July 1.—President Wilson has recommended to Congress the control and operation of the National Telegraph and Telephone system and the Western Union, the operatives of which are to strike on July 8th. In view of the threatened strike Congress will endeavor this week to pass legislation authorizing the President to take over the systems.

CABLE BRIEFS

WASHINGTON—The Army casualty list contains 49 names. Four died of wounds, five died of accident and other causes, one of airplane mishap, seven of disease, 26 were severely wounded and one missing in action.

NEW YORK—American steamship George L. Eaton, 6,000 tons, was sunk in European waters, presumably by a submarine, according to information received in shipping circles today. She left for France two weeks ago.

WASHINGTON—An official dispatch from Rome says the Italians and French on the Asiago Plateau in capturing Mont di Val Bella took 1,500 Austrians as prisoners.

FLORENCE, Italy, July 1.—The City Council has voted unanimously to give Secretary Wilson the freedom of the city.